

Awards Night

The Dayton chapter annual awards night was held at the May 11, 2017 PDM at the Holiday Inn along with the annual officer elections. These awards committee appointed by the president.

Company of the Year

Emerson Climate Technologies was selected for their continued education of their employees in the APICS classes for operations and supply management. Emerson is a long-time APICS supporter and a leading international company in the manufacture of climate technology products. Emerson has also a supporter of APICS membership and former chapter president and board member Mary Lou Lacy, CPIM..

Member of Year

Rebecca Betts, CPIM, was selected as member of the year for her continued attendance (80%) since 1996 at PDM meetings. Her attendance and support is higher than any chapter member in keeping with the continuing education and certification objectives of the APICS mission.

Special Service Award

Rich Graf,CFPIM, APICS member for 32 years, received the award for many years of service and longer than any other board member for that position, as Director of all Student Chapters including Miami University and the University of Dayton and oversees the chapter financial contribution for two fine and nationally known degree programs in Supply Management, led by Dr. William Newman of Miami and Dr. Jack Kanet at UD.

Special Service Award

Craig Miller was selected for a special service award for leading the chapter to the 2016 Platinum Award for chapter management while stepping forward to assume the responsibility due to a vacancy in the office of President. Craig is a 33 year APICS member and a Dayton Chapter board member for 10 plus years. Craig continues to lead the chapter as president in 2017.

